

Toy Loan Library Marks First Year

In celebration of its first anniversary, the toy loan library held an open house this afternoon in its new quarters in the 1500 block on El Prado. Miss Mae June Crowell is librarian and Harry Slover is the Co-ordinating Council worker assisting the project.

COUNCIL MAKES TREE SURVEY

Members of the council agreed to allow all but three residents to remove trees they had requested permission to uproot last week following an inspection. Occupants of homes at 1747, 1923 and 1927 Andree ave. were not at home when the council made its rounds and so the board was unable to find out which trees were wanted removed at those residences. Another tour will be made next Monday afternoon at 4:30 to inspect those other sites where trees are wanted out.

MacMurray, Lombard Starred in Third Film

AROUND HOLLYWOOD FILM LOTS

HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—Picture to play with Cooper in her first role. And the gross of grosses does not include rehearsals. The memory of Maurice Chevalier, the popular French comedian, may be recalled when Robert Spencer appears in Universal pictures. Spencer doubled for Chevalier when the Frenchman was wowing 'em in this country.

Peggy Coleman has something different in autographed pictures. She's studio nurse at M-G-M and turns down photographs of stars instead asks for pictures of their dogs, autographed by the owner.

One of Gracie Field's mannerisms she brought over from England is an aversion to carrying money. When she has to have a few dollars for taxi fare or incidentals, she borrows it from her director, Monte Banks.

Director William Seiter is just a shadow of himself. Fact is, he used his shadow on a wall of a prison cell occupied by Robert Taylor and Victor McLaglen. The shadow was that of a prison guard.

BROODERS

Fred MacMurray and Carole Lombard brood prettily in this scene from "Swing High, Swing Low", opening tonight at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne. Considering what they've got on their minds—a lack of funds— it's understandable.

Ann plays the part of a court stenographer who is horrified when one of the vagabonds in the lineup turns out to be the brilliant lawyer who was once her husband.

Nightclub Life In Panama Is Story Scene

Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray, the romantic team of "Hands Across the Table", and "A Princess Comes Across", are together again in "Swing High, Swing Low", a romance with music which opens tonight at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne.

"Swing High, Swing Low" is the story of nightclub life in Panama and New York. Miss Lombard plays the role of an entertainer in a Panama cabaret who makes a famous musician out of MacMurray, who has been very much on the loose in the canal port. This role gives Miss Lombard an opportunity to sing and dance, the first time she exhibits her talents in these fields, and MacMurray plays the trumpet, also for the first time in pictures.

The cast also includes glamorous Dorothy Lamour, the beauty who captivated America in her first screen appearance, "The Jungle Princess". She plays the role of "the other woman", with whom MacMurray falls in love. Miss Lamour, who was famous as a radio singer before her entry into pictures, also sings and dances in "Swing High, Swing Low". Charles Butterworth, Jean Dixon, Harvey Stephens and other well-known feature players complete the cast.

Romantic Couple Together Again In Brilliant Film

Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray, the romantic team of "Hands Across the Table" and "A Princess Comes Across", are together again in "Swing High, Swing Low", a brilliant romance with music, which opens Sunday at the Torrance theatre. "Swing High, Swing Low" is the story of Carole Lombard, as the girl whose love and faith in a never-do-well trumpet player lifts him to the pinnacle of success but robs her of his love. He discovers that he cannot succeed without her and returns to beg her forgiveness.

The story is set in Panama and New York City, and there are many gorgeous settings. Dorothy Lamour, the girl who became famous after her first moving picture appearance in "The Jungle Princess", is in the elaborate cast, which also includes Charlie Butterworth, Jean Dixon, Harvey Stephens and many others. "Swing High, Swing Low" is the first film in which talented

"MAYTIME"—WHEN LOVE IS YOUNG!

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy reach the zenith of their dazzling co-starring career in "Maytime", the story of an opera star who gave up romance for a career. It is showing to-night, Friday and Saturday at the Torrance theatre.

'Ramona' Attracts Throngs

Double Bill of Hits Friday At Tower Theatre

"Swing High, Swing Low," a dramatic romance with music which opens at the Tower theatre Friday is a brilliant love story, masterfully directed and highlighted by good music, dancing and gorgeous settings.

It is also a picture with many pleasant surprises for moviegoers. Beautiful Carole Lombard, who is co-starred with Fred MacMurray, sings and dances in the film for the first time revealing talents which are certain to lift her even to greater heights of popularity. MacMurray plays the trumpet and Charles Butterworth exhibits his talents as a pianist. With this feature, "The Great O'Malley", with Pat O'Brien and Sybil Jason, and Ann Sheridan.
